I thought I'd never do a remix contest honestly, but once I decided to do one I figured I'd do it a little differently than I've seen before. Different partially because no one has actually heard the original song yet, but also because the "kit" has been randomly chopped together using the software Arge•phontes Lyre, by Akira Rabelais.

So instead of getting full instrument and vocal tracks, you're getting random bursts and bits of noises and sounds from the song. Use these bits as you see fit to create a blind reconstruction of the song. (Please note that as a side effect of the chopping process that some bits of audio may be de-tuned or pitched oddly. I leave it up to you to decide what to do with those bits.)

When you're done, email me a link to the file (NOT the actual file) to remixATiparasiteDOTnet. YouSendIt and the like are perfectly acceptable. Please submit your final mixes as 16 bit, 44.1 kHz WAV or AIF files (NO compressed formats, like mp3).

My favorite top 4 remixes will be posted on the The Sick Are Not Healing MySpace page until formal album songs are posted. My absolute favorite remix will remain on the MySpace page after formal songs are posted and also appear on an enhanced portion of the new CD as high quality AAC/MP4 file. You will of course be credited for your work.

There may be some other prizes involved for the winners, but in the spirit of the chaos surrounding this contest, I'll let you know when I've figured it out. :P

Oh and what's the deadline? Mmmm, let's say end of May? Depends on the volume of submissions. Don't stress too much about that right now.

Good luck!
